

Christoph Gessner started as a Ship Mechanic trainee at the shipping company Hamburg Süd. He studied Nautical Science and Marine Engineering, before starting his sailing time as Nautical and Technical Officer for Columbus Shipmanagement GmbH (CSG) – a daughter company of Hamburg Süd. He worked for CSG as a Newbuilding Supervisor at the Samsung shipyard in South Korea, then supported various vessel classes as Superintendent at the CSG office. In 2008, he was appointed to Fleet Manager for Aliança , also a daughter company of Hamburg Süd, working also four years at the Aliança office in São Paulo. Since 1 January 2014 he is Managing Director for CSG.

