

B I O G R A P H Y

SAMI KOUVONEN – MEYER TURKU OY

Sami Kouvonen joined Kvaerner Masa-Yards in 2000 as Naval Architect. Concentrating in passenger ships, Sami's duties ranged from drawing concept designs to coordinating full technical contract documentation and, in case of a shipbuilding contract, overseeing the project all the way through to delivery. Sami has been member of the project management team, in which responsible for naval architecture, of such ferry newbuilding projects as Color Fantasy, Color Magic, Viking Grace and latest the fast ropax newbuilding for Tallink.

Sami has seventeen years' experience from hydrodynamics, ship design and ship building. Sami is currently Head of Ship Design within Meyer Turku Sales & Design Department.